The Midtown Atlanta Rotary Club
Barbara B. Rose
Volunteer of the Year Awards
To Be Held on: April 13, 2010
Application Deadline: March 12, 2010

Volunteer: a person who freely chooses to give time and effort without being asked or obliged Philanthropy: a desire to help mankind, especially as shown by giving of oneself to charitable or humanitarian endeavors

The fourth annual Barbara B. Rose Volunteer of the Year Awards will be presented in the spring of 2010. This award will be given to an outstanding volunteer whose record of service has been submitted by a 501(c)3 organization in the Midtown Atlanta area. Each organization may submit one candidate.

In addition, one candidate will be accepted from a member of the Midtown Atlanta Rotary Club if his/her recommendation is associated with one of the 501(c)3 organizations in the designated Midtown area. Whether the candidate is suggested by a Rotary member or the organization, only one submission is permitted per organization.

The applicant would be a person who has given time and effort to a cause simply because he or she believes in all of the attributes of philanthropy and humanitarianism. We are especially interested in a volunteer whose service, dedication and compassion has possibly gone unrecognized and/or one who has made a difference to your organization and the people it serves.
